Sunday Worship Services

First United Methodist Church of Iowa City offers three unique and distinctive Sunday morning services of Worship.

Cornerstone Service from 8-8:50 a.m. This Worship Service is “bedrock” United Methodist Traditional Worship at its finest, centered on the singing of traditional hymns, biblically-focused preaching, and traditional liturgies and prayers. Organist Jin-Ah Yoo leads our music ministry at this service which also features soloists and small vocal and instrumental groups from time to time.

Sanctuary Alternative Worship Service from 9:15-10 a.m. Looking for a casual, up-beat worship service where you are welcomed “just the way you are?” This service features the contemporary music and praise hymns led by the Sanctuary Band and the use of projectors and screens & digital technology. Attire for this service is casual but our focus remains on worshipping God with our prayers and our praise.

Koinonia Worship from 10:30-11:30 a.m. The Koinonia (Greek for “Community”) Service is for people of all ages, featuring an up-dated approach to worship through the use of modern litanies, songs and prayers while remaining true to our United Methodist worship heritage. The music ministry of Organist Jin-Ah Yoo and the Chancel Choir, led by Director of Music Samuel Kwok, is supplemented by a variety of vocal and instrumental ensembles, including our bell and chime choirs.
